

Chances for a Fresh Start –
Discovering Career Prospects and Opportunities in Ghana

Are you searching for job or career opportunities in Ghana? Or do you think about starting your own business?

We offer advice on career perspectives, employment opportunities and business development.

Have you returned from abroad?

We support you starting afresh in Ghana!

The Ghanaian-European Centre for Jobs, Migration and Development (GEC) provides information, support and one-to-one advice on employment, business and educational perspectives in Ghana. The support is intended both for returnees who need help with their social and economic reintegration and for local people seeking to improve their career prospects. The Centre and its partners help individuals to succeed on the Ghanaian job market and support those who are looking for education, trainings or options to set up a business.

In the areas of jobs, migration and reintegration, the Centre works in partnership with the Ghanaian Ministry for Employment and Labour Relations (MELR).

The GEC also provides advice on the requirements for regular migration.
